BURSARY APPLICATION FORM

MEMBERSHIP FEE - $300

Edmonton Youth Orchestra (EYO) offers financial assistance to young musicians who require budget support in order to participate in the EYO.

Membership bursaries are offered on the basis of family need. This includes but is not limited to, the gross family income, information about dependents, and standing with EYO. There are no predetermined levels or ranges used to determine financial assistance eligibility because many other factors have an impact on financial assistance eligibility beyond family income and dependent children. We understand that there may be family considerations that do not translate well in numbers.

Please complete this Bursary Application Form and submit to the EYO by mail or e-mail prior to August 15th.

Financial assistance is provided for the current season and cannot be carried forward to the next season. Candidates need to re-apply every year.

All information disclosed on this application will be kept confidential.

Please answer the following questions:

How much can you contribute towards this year's membership fee? _____

How many years have you been a member of EYO? _____

Do you currently live with a parent / guardian? _____
